Please, at least send this back to the Planning Commission as it is a new proposal regarding the Sid Commons project. Why have a Planning Commission if its decisions can be overturned by the City Council? This needs to go back to the Planning Commission as it is a different plan for the project. Don’t understand why Staff would recommend upholding the appeal by the developer without going back to the Planning Commission.